Title Insurance

A policy of title insurance is a contract of indemnity that provides coverage to the insured, up to the policy limits, against loss or damage sustained by reason of defects, liens, encumbrances, or other matters adversely affecting the title to the land covered by the policy and which are not excluded from coverage by the policy's terms. Title insurance will not only indemnify the insured for such loss or damage, it will also provide for retaining an attorney for the insured and for paying attorney's fees to defend covered claims subject to the policy's terms.

In addition to providing coverage based on an examination of the public records, a title policy also insures against certain "off record" defects in the chain of title such as a forgery, incompetency, minority, and lack of capacity or authority.

Prospective insureds are encouraged to read and compare policy forms and endorsements available on our website, www.tghawaii.com.

AN OWNER'S POLICY: An Owner's policy insures the owner that title to the land is vested as stated in the policy, free from defects, liens and encumbrances, and with a right of access to the land, subject to the exceptions noted in Schedule B of the policy, general exclusions, and the terms and provisions set forth in the policy jacket. The policy coverage continues as long as the insured owner owns the property and for as long as the owner may be liable under a warranty of the title given to a buyer. An Owner's policy is usually issued for a policy limit equal to the amount of the purchase price or the market value of the property.

There are several types of Owner's policies, but the basic ones are: the Hawaii Standard Owner's Policy; the ALTA (American Land Title Association) Homeowner's Policy of Title Insurance or First American Title Insurance Company Eagle Policy (for individuals who own residential property with up to four units); and the ALTA Owner's Policy (sometimes also referred to as an "extended" owner's policy). The different policy types provide different title coverages and charges vary accordingly.

A LOAN POLICY: A loan policy is issued to a lender and holder of a mortgage. There are two basic types of loan policies: the ALTA Loan Policy and the ALTA Expanded Residential Loan Policy or the First American Eagle Loan Policy (for mortgages on residential properties with up to four units). Generally, the Loan policy provides coverage for the enforceability and priority of the lien of the insured's mortgage subject to the policy's terms and provisions.

Coverage can be given to both an owner and a lender but it is important to note that an owner is not protected by a loan policy. Loan policy coverage is for the protection of the insured lender and holder of the mortgage only.

CONCURRENT OWNER'S & ALTA LOAN POLICY: An Owner's policy and an ALTA Lender's policy may be issued simultaneously at the rate applicable to the amount of insurance of the Owner's policy (provided the Loan Policy amount is not in excess of the Owner's Policy) plus a minimum charge of $250 for the Loan Policy up to $2,000,000 in liability, or a minimum charge of $450 for the Loan Policy up to $3,000,000 in liability.

CONCURRENT OWNER'S & ALTA LOAN POLICY (with Loan Amount in excess of the amount of the Owner's Policy) : The Owner's policy and the ALTA Lender's Policy may be issued simultaneously at the rate applicable to amount of insurance of the Owner's policy, in addition to the loan premium calculated on the excess amount of the loan policy, plus a minimum charge of $250 for the Loan Policy up to $2,000,000 in liability, or a minimum charge of $450 for the Loan Policy up to $3,000,000 in liability.

ENDORSEMENTS AND/OR SPECIAL COVERAGES: Available by arrangement and may be subject to additional charges.

A NOTE ABOUT TITLE PREMIUMS AND CHARGES

- The purpose of the preceding schedule is to indicate the premiums ordinarily applicable to the amount of insurance coverages shown and contemplates the ordinary condition of title. If unusual conditions of title are encountered, multiple chains of title are involved or if special or unusual risks are insured against additional premiums may be charged. Additional fees may also be charged by Title Guaranty for special or extraordinary services performed beyond those which are ordinarily incurred in connection with issuing a policy of title insurance.
- A preliminary report provides information similar to a status report and is ordinarily issued in contemplation of the issuance of title insurance. It does not provide any title insurance coverage or liability. It is usually one of the first steps in a sales or mortgage transaction, assists the parties and their agents in determining what title matters need to be addressed prior to closing.
- The charge for an ALTA Homeowner's Policy of Title Insurance and an ALTA Expanded Residential Loan Policy are each 110% of the premium for a Hawaii Standard Owner's Policy. The basic premium for an ALTA (extended) Owner's Policy is 150% of the premium for a Hawaii Standard Owner's Policy.
- Title insurance premium credits may be available for sale and refinance transactions under $3,000,000.
 - For a sale transaction, the credit will be calculated based on the current premium to be charged for a Standard Owner's Policy to be issued to the buyer. The credit will be applied to the percentages of the title premium allocated in the contractual agreement between buyer and seller.
 - For a refinance transaction, the credit will be calculated based on the current premium to be charged for an ALTA Loan Policy.
 - Maximum of 50% credit on the current premium if the same property has been insured by any title insurance company during the twelve month period immediately preceding the closing of the subject transaction (provided that the minimum premium charged will not be less than $585). To qualify for this credit, prior insurance must be either an Owner's or an ALTA Loan Policy.
 - Maximum of 25% credit on the current premium if the same property has been insured by any title insurance company during the period more than one year but less than eight years before the closing of the subject transaction (provided that the minimum premium charged will not be less than $585). To qualify for this credit, prior insurance must be either an Owner's or an ALTA Loan Policy.
- If a title order is cancelled, a reasonable cancellation fee based upon the services provided may be charged.
- For a sale transaction, a release processing fee of $55 is charged to the seller where mortgage(s) need to be monitored for proper release(s) and recordation after closing.

OTHER TITLE INSURANCE

JUNIOR LOAN POLICY - A Junior Loan Policy may be issued to lenders or holders of a second or equity line mortgage. The Junior Loan Policy insures the lender that the title to the subject property is vested according to the last conveyance of record, and encumbered by the monetary liens, judgments and real property taxes as disclosed within the policy. Minimum charge is $150 for coverage up to $250,000; and $250 for coverage up to $500,000.

LITIGATION GUARANTEE - A report that is used primarily for foreclosures. In addition to reporting the condition of title, it identifies the parties to be cited in a civil proceeding affecting title, excluding quiet title actions. Litigation Guarantee premiums are at $500 for coverage of $3,500 and $550 for coverage of $15,000. Endorsement to the Litigation Guarantee is $125 for an endorsement issued within 24 months

CERTIFICATE OF TITLE - A Certificate of Title is the certification by a title insurance company as to the title to a particular parcel of land based upon a search of the public records. It sets forth only those matters affecting title which are considered valid and outstanding in the public records as of the date and time shown on the Certificate. The liability of the title insurance company for the issuance of a Certificate of Title is confined to the records searched and does not extend to "off record risks" such as competency of the parties, forgeries, fraud, undisclosed heirs, adverse possession, encroachments and such matters not possible to ascertain by a search of such recorded documents. Minimum charge is $500 for coverage up to $250,000.
